W. T. LOWE NAMED JUDGE OF COUNTY COURT; TO ASSUME HIS DUTIES AT ONCE

Decatur Attorney Given Appointment by Governor Thos. E. Kilby Today.

FIRST MEET PROBABLY BE HELD IN DECEMBER
Eleven Cases Already Have Been Filed in the New Court.

It's Judge W. T. Lowe now. Judge Lowe, prominent Decatur attorney and former state senator, received notice this morning of his appointment by Governor Kilby as first judge of the new Morgan county court, created by the recent legislature, which at the same time abolished the inferior courts of Hartselle, New Decatur and Decatur and all justice of the peace courts in the county. Judge Lowe will assume office immediately.

He stated this morning, however, that he had not had time to plan any session of the court and did not know just when the first session will be called. It is probable that it will not be until early in December as the Circuit court is in session practically all of November.

Even cases have already been filed in the court. Settlements in two of them have been agreed upon by the parties to the suits and Judge Lowe faces a docket carrying only seven cases.

GOMPERS TO CALL GENERAL COUNCIL TO PLAN BIG CAMPAIGN

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Organized labor is planning a gigantic coup. This was learned today at the headquarters of the American Federation of Labor here. Aroused by its failure in the industrial conference, organized labor is today planning to work more diligently than ever for a nation-wide organization of workers. A general conference will be called at an early date to deal with the future plans of labor, it was officially announced at the headquarters of the American Federation of Labor this morning.

Samuel Gompers this morning sent a telegram to the Illinois Federation of Labor declaring that the executive council of the plan labor's campaign. The telegram was sent in reply to a resolution adopted by the Illinois Federation of Labor yesterday urging Gompers to take steps to form one big union.

A meeting of the representatives of the American Federation of Labor with the four big railroad brotherhoods and the Farmers' National Council will be held either in Washington or Chicago next month, it is announced.

(International News Service.)

Principles Clashed Asserts Judge Gary

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Judge Elbert H. Gary, head of the U. S. Steel corporation, today attributed the breaking up of the industrial conference to a clash of principles. He addressed the Iron and Steel Institute at the Hotel Commodore.

"Every proposition contended for by the labor unions at the conference led to the domination of the shops by union leaders," said Gary. "Every position taken by the other side centered on the open shop. This is the great question confronting the American public."

TROTSKY PLANNED RED CAMPAIGN TO CAPTURE AMERICA

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The Bolshevik movement which "threatens to overrun this country" has been directly traced to "an international communist gathering" of Russian Bolsheviks held at Moscow from March 2 to March 6 by Leonid Trotsky, first Lieut. Donald C. Van Buren, of the United States army intelligence service, declared today in testifying before the senate subcommittee investigating the steel strike. Van Buren said "red activities on a broad scale had been unearthed."

WILSON ASKS FOR 15 CENTS PER TON INCREASE; PROFFER FLATLY REJECTED

Secretary of Labor Submits Definite Proposition to Avert Strike.

NEGOTIATIONS RE-OPENED AND PAST WASHED OUT

"As You Were" Order From Cabinet Chief Prevents Break Between Two Groups.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Secretary of Labor Wilson's proposal for wage increases for the coal miners to avert the threatened coal strike was rejected this afternoon by both miners and the operators. Secretary Wilson appealed to the conference to remain in Washington until he could communicate with the White House, and he asked for a further conference at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The request was taken under consideration. The rejected proposal would have made a 17 per cent increase in the wages of the miners.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Without acknowledging any concessions, coal miners and operators, in conference here today, began actual discussions of increased wages. Secretary of Labor Wilson made a proposal to the conference for an increase in wages of 15 cents a ton for picked mining, with proportional increases for other grades of work. Both parties agreed to discuss this proposition.

At the opening of the conference, Secretary Wilson asked the operators to negotiate without reservations, and they replied they would not negotiate unless the strike order was rescinded.

ONE RAY OF HOPE

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—There was a ray of hope in the coal situation today, although both the miners and the operators declared that negotiations to prevent the threatened strike were just where they started. There was a decidedly optimistic atmosphere when the two parties gathered for a conference. The fact that an impassioned appeal from Secretary Wilson was sufficient to hold the conference in session for another day, was taken as indicative that both sides were anxious to reach some agreement.

The conference today had a proposition from Secretary Wilson to open negotiations as though there had been no demands made at all. It was to consider this proposition that the parties in controversy met with the public officials, hoping that the whole subject of wages and hours would be reopened without either side making reservations.

PAVING PROGRAM STILL ON BOARDS

BUYERS' BIDS FOR ALBANY'S PAVING BONDS REJECTED

Offers Considered Too Low by Council and Are Turned Down.

CONFERENCES ARE HELD WITH OFFICIALS TODAY

Higher Bids May Be Received From Several of the Companies.

All bids submitted to the Albany council last night for the street paving bonds were considered too low by the aldermen and they were rejected at a special meeting of the council.

The bids for bonds amounting to $560,000 ranged from 91.52 to oral bids of 96, but the last sale of bonds brought 97 and the council decided 96 or better should be brought by the bonds now under consideration.

Sealed bids were received as follows:
W. L. Slayton and company, of Toledo 92
J. C. Mayer and Company, of Cincinnati 92
Steiner Brothers, of Birmingham 91.52

Mayor A. C. Dillehay reported to the council that he was in receipt of a long distance telephone message from bond buyers at Jackson, Tenn., offering 96 and W. J. Nesbitt, representing Mallory and Mallory, of Montgomery, stated to the council he believed his company would offer 96.

The majority of the bond buyers are still in the city today and several conferences are being held with city officials. Fred Dean, representative of one of the buyers, today is inspecting the streets, which it is proposed to pave, in company with Alderman W. V. Davidson. Some of the companies may bid higher.

Members of the council last night brought up the question of disposition of the proceeds from the bond sale pending the time actual work was begun on the streets. It was stated that the city would be paying about 6 per cent on the money and probably would only receive 4 per cent. It is expected some arrangements will be worked out in order to relieve the municipality from standing a loss of 2 per cent.

MERRITT NAMED AS JUDGE; MAY NOT BE ABLE DRAW SALARY

(International News Service.)
MONTGOMERY, Oct. 24.—Appointment of Henry P. Merritt, speaker of the house of representatives, as a member of the court of appeals may bring up an interesting legal question which may bar him from drawing his salary from the state. He will succeed Judge J. B. Brown in the court of appeals. Judge Brown succeeds Judge J. J. Mayfield in the supreme court. Judge Mayfield was appointed code commissioner. Judge Brown is from Morgan county.

Speaker Merritt was a member of the legislature which increased salaries of members of the court of appeals. In this connection section 59 of the state constitution is quoted: "No senator nor representative shall, during the period for which he shall have been elected, be appointed to any office of profit under this state, which shall have been created or the emoluments of which shall have been increased during such terms except such office as may be filled by the people."

DECATUR TO AWARD PAVING CONTRACTS AT THE SAME TIME

Overhead Charges on Three Streets Too High, Council Believes.

ALL IMPROVEMENTS TO COST THE SAME

Simultaneous Action to Reduce Transportation Cost of the Machinery.

Paving of Church, Railroad and Vine streets will be postponed until action is taken on the other street paving ordinances now pending before the Decatur council, members of the aldermanic body agreed last night at their regular meeting.

Following lengthy discussion of the question, it was decided that the overhead cost of transporting machinery here for the work on the three streets would cause the total cost of their improvement to be higher than the cost of the same improvements of other streets. Contracts for the entire work will be awarded at the same time in order to reduce that overhead expense.

Ordinances providing for the improvement of practically every unpaved street in the city, southward from the spur track, near the river, are now pending in the council and will be taken up at the next meeting next Thursday night.

PUBLIC GROUP TO DRAFT A REPORT

REMNANT OF INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE HAS NOTHING ELSE TO DO.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The remnant of President Wilson's industrial conference—the public group—had nothing to do today but to consider plans for a report on industrial conditions throughout the country, as desired by the President. The group will meet this afternoon to formulate those plans, and also draft a letter to President Wilson of its intentions.

John D. Rockefeller Jr., as head of the sub-committee, will draw up the tentative report.

MONTGOMERY, Oct. 24.—On December 29th the electors of Alabama will vote upon a constitutional amendment giving 42 Alabama cities and towns home rule in the matter of taxation for municipal purposes. The amendment fixes the limit at 1½ per cent, on a vote of the people, and its purpose is to relieve the distress of certain communities that are suffering severely for lack of revenue. It does not effect any towns or cities except the forty-two, which are as follows:

QUALIFICATIONS OF SIGNERS CAN BE TESTED

All Legal Evidence May Be Submitted if Any Person Desires.

The public hearings are in accordance with the Lynne bill, passed by the recent legislature and providing for the consolidation of adjacent cities between certain populations, and requiring that after the petitions, asking an election, have been filed with the probate judge, he shall set a date for hearings at which time any legal evidence may be presented, testing the qualifications of the signers.

Judge Troup's official notice follows:

Notice of Hearing on Petitions for Consolidation.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Notice is hereby given to all persons interested, that petitions seeking an election to determine whether or not Decatur and Albany, adjacent or contiguous cities located within Morgan County, Alabama, shall be consolidated into one city under the name of the City of Decatur, were on October 22nd, 1919, filed with the undersigned as Probate Judge of Morgan County, Alabama; and that said petitions have been set for hearing on the following dates:

L. P. TROUP,
Probate Judge.

SENATE CONTINUES TO DEBATE TREATY

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—With unlimited debate on the peace treaty expected to continue in the senate today, the leaders offered little hope for a vote on the Johnson amendment being reached this week. It was proposed again that when the senate was finally ready to dispose of the Johnson amendment, the Moses amendment, which involves the same proposition, will be acted on at the same time.

A campaign committee has been organized with J. R. Hornady as chairman, to present the issue to the voters, and this committee is actively at work. A strong appeal is being made to the people residing outside of the communities affected to come to the appeal, "and as friends and neighbors we ask you to do what you can to see that the amendment is carried."

THE ILL-FATED INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE

The industrial conference which President Wilson called with the hope that labor and capital might fight out their differences face to face, with representatives of the public present to speak a word for the interest of the great third party that outnumbered both the other two, has gone into the discard as an absolute failure. There were two reasons for this. One was that the absence of Mr. Wilson robbed the conference of its central and dominating figure, for without his presence the conference very much resembled the play of "Hamlet" with the gloomy Dane not at home. The second, and perhaps more compelling was the apparently irreconcilable differences that exist between labor and capital, and the marked determination of neither group to compromise or conciliate. This spirit of hostility is one of the most alarming signs of the times, and it forebodes still more violent clashes than those that took place on the floor of the conference.

Since the conference was such a dismal failure, it would perhaps have been better had it never been called. The illness, however, of Mr. Wilson could not be foreseen, and the dangers of the present industrial situation are such that heroic efforts seeking an adjustment were in order. The public group, which remained in session after labor had withdrawn and capital had been dismissed, has been entrusted with the task of formulating a statement to be given to the public, and which will correctly outline the position of that great majority which is not affiliated with unions nor contaminated by great wealth, a majority that has real interests to protect and rights that must be respected.

RAILROAD RATES WILL BE INCREASED

Preliminary to the reversion of the railroads to private ownership, conferences are already being held between the association of railway executives and Director General Hines in regard to a pending advance in freight rates. Such an advance is inevitable, for under federal control the operating expenses of the railroads have been increased 95 per cent, and a huge deficit taken care of by the national treasury. When the strong arm of the government is removed, the railroads must get back to a business basis and must earn at least as much as they expend. To do this, they must have additional income, and that income can be secured only by levying additional charges upon the public. A reasonable advance in freight and passenger charges will not work any special hardship upon the nation, which has grown accustomed to high prices of all kinds. Such an advance, however, will have some effect upon the cost of living, which must climb just a notch higher. The only solution in sight for present difficulties is the continual lengthening of the financial yard-stick and the further depreciation of the value of a dollar.

THE NEWSPAPER PEOPLE

Columbus Dispatch.
One of the delegates to the industrial conference objected to the meetings being made public on the ground, he said, that the "newspaper people" would garble the reports to suit their own selfish purposes. He had no faith whatever in the "newspaper people," he declared, and preferred that they be denied the right of being present when the many subjects were under discussion.

The "newspaper people"—meaning thereby the people who make the newspapers as well as the owners thereof—are used to just such criticisms. But the fact that year after year the press increases in importance and the "newspaper people" are more and more respected in their profession, is pretty good evidence that there isn't anything in the criticisms. Indeed, we never hear such criticisms but we think of Boss Tweed's comment many years ago, when he was overtaken in his career of political corruption. Upon that occasion he declared:

"If I could have bought newspaper men as easily as I did members of the legislature, I wouldn't be the fix I am now. The most of those cusses would refuse money when they didn't have enough to get 'em a decent meal."

JUST IN PASSING

ALBANY ATTORNEY HERE ON BUSINESS

Tennis Tidwell, city attorney of Albany, spent Wednesday in Montgomery on legal business. He said that a petition, under an act passed by the last session of the State Legislature, was being circulated in Decatur and Albany to call an election for the consolidation of two cities. Mr. Tidwell stated that thus far he had been informed that the petition was not being pushed very rapidly, and as yet but few had signed. However he was of the opinion that the election might be held, but was of the opinion that consolidation would be defeated if the election was held. He said, however, that the sentiment was very badly divided on the question and that it was very hard to say at this time just what the result of an election would be.—Montgomery Advertiser.

Ludendorff Said U-Boats Would End the War Quickly

(International News Service.)
BERLIN, Oct. 24.—Count Von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the U. S., continuing his testimony today before the war guilt commission, declared that in May, 1917, Gen. Ludendorff made the statement at German great headquarters that he had positive information that England "could hold out only three months longer."

The count said he had been called to great headquarters for the conference. After certain conversations in which the former diplomat pointed out that he had been asked in Germany to make peace through the U. S. if possible, he testified that Ludendorff said: "We do not want that now. We will finish the war in three months with our U-boats."

495 SHIPS TIED UP AT NEW YORK BY MARINE STRIKE

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Four hundred and ninety five ships, with a tonnage of 1,365,700, lay idle in New York harbor as a result of the long-shoremen's strike. Virtually every dock and dry dock in the city is occupied and 180 vessels, which were unable to find berths, were anchored in the lower bay. The piers are lined with freight awaiting shipments. Vessels are crammed with goods but cannot be unloaded because no men can be secured. Anywhere from 35,000 to 75,000 bags of mail, much of it urgent and important, are piled up on the piers. Meanwhile, conciliatory efforts to end the strike continue. There were minor disorders on the docks at Brooklyn this morning but they were quickly checked. Fifty five of the idle vessels are passenger carriers, 25 of which are trans-Atlantic liners. It is estimated 28,000 persons are stranded in local hotels awaiting passage.

National Legislation of the Meat Packing Industry

1. Will not increase the amount of meat you can buy for a dollar.
2. Will not raise more animals.
3. Will not produce more meat.
4. Will not stop fluctuations in live-stock receipts or prices.
5. Will not increase the output of the packing houses.
6. Will not prevent strikes.
7. Will not reduce transportation charges.
8. Will not reduce the retailer's cost of doing business.
9. Will not increase the demand for the cheaper cuts of meat.
10. Will not lessen the consumers' demand for expensive delivery and credit service.
11. Can not at the same time raise prices paid farmers for live stock, and lower prices paid by consumers for meat.

But the slowing up of efficiency due to cumbersome governmental routine will have the effect of increasing the manufacturing charges between the cost of live stock and the cost of meats, thus forcing lower live-stock prices or higher meat prices.

The packing industry as now conducted, is characterized by keen competition, highest efficiency, and unusually low profits.

Thought Man Was Crazy

"I have suffered from stomach and liver trouble for years; the last two years people have been calling me crazy. The doctors could not do anything for me. The awful bloating of gas seemed to press against my brain and I could not think clearly. Three months ago a friend advised taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it has worked wonders in my case. All my bloating and suffering is gone and I feel as though newly born." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. S. M. Thompson in Albany and Owl Drug Co., in Decatur and druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

THOUGHT

October.
Come out, boys, come out;
Get all the troop together,
The day is great and the sun is bright—
Say, it's October weather.

Buddy Jones—go get him quick,
And Bill—there he's a-calling,
The burrs have burst, the wind is high,
And the ripest ones are falling.

Hurry them up; get all the bunch
And bring them out—where's Jan?
Nuts on the ground are easy to get—
The sweetest the highest grow.

Scout or squirrel, which one will win?
It's the first one there that lands
But a squirrel's feet should never beat
A scout with his head and hands.

There's fun in the woods on a day like this;
Miss it? Who ever dreamed miss,
Nature's in love with the whole wide world,
For Winter gave her a kiss.

Come out, boys, come out,
It's a dandy sight to see
The colors that Nature has wrought
And splashed on every tree.
—Tom Martin Bray, in Boys' Life.

FOURTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FIRST DISTRICT OF THE ALABAMA FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

In the parlors of Hotel Lyons on Thursday morning, Oct. 22, the fourth annual meeting of the first district of the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs met in business session. Mrs. L. A. Neill, chairman of the first district and State Vice-President, presiding. At the opening of the session the chairman made introductory remarks extending a cordial welcome to delegates, which were well timed and in the best taste. Mrs. Neill presided with dignity and made a pleasing picture as she stood near a stand that held a large vase of specimen chrysanthemums. In the absence of Miss Sykes, of Athens, Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. F. S. Hunt accepted the nomination to act in that capacity. The minutes of the meeting held at Athens, Ala., April, 1918, were then read and approved. Mrs. Foster H. Pointer read a report from the Berean club, Mrs. E. R. Wolf gave a report from the Catocti Literary club, Mrs. F. F. Tidwell a report from the Music Study club, Mrs. Baxter Crawford a report from the Progressive Culture club, Mrs. Chas. Leftwich a report from the Saturday club, Miss Ruby Stewart made the report of the Culture club of Hartselle, Mrs. W. G. Henry that of the Study Circle of Huntsville, Miss Julia Penney from the Grace club of Huntsville, Mrs. Annie Anglin from the Woman's club of Huntsville, Mrs. W. I. Thompson, state chairman of health, in addition to the report on health, gave an excellent report of the health survey of Madison county by Dr. Grote. Mrs. Thompson represented the Civic League of Huntsville and Mrs. John D. Wyker took occasion to especially commend the report and work of Mrs. Thompson, which was heartily echoed by the members present. Mrs. H. A. Carmichael, of Tusculum, represented the City Beautiful club of her home town. The state has heard of the successful work of Mrs. Carmichael and the ladies of the Tri-Cities and her report was heard with much interest.

Luncheon hour was announced and the members repaired to the dining room, where the tables had been beautifully decorated by Mesdames F. S. Hunt and S. W. Irwin and covers were laid for: Mesdames Baxter Crawford, J. D. Wyker, L. A. Neill, F. S. Hunt, J. H. Calvin, F. F. Tidwell, W. R. Shelton, E. R. Wolfe, Hal Mullen, F. H. Pointer, C. K. Lide, Sr., S. W. Irwin, W. G. Henry, Annie Anglin, W. I. Thompson, A. H. Carmichael, J. T. Jones, O. Moebes, Chas. Leftwich, Misses Julia Penney, Ruby Stewart, Mary Pennek and Corene Doss, of Hartselle.

At 1 o'clock the delegates reassembled in the parlors for the resumption of business. Mrs. O. Moebes, chairman for general Federation magazines, addressed the delegates impressing upon those present the necessity of keeping fully informed in club work by subscribing for the General Federation Magazine.

Unanimous endorsement was given the Thrift Movement.

The nominating committee, Mesdames Baxter Crawford, H. A. Carmichael, W. I. Thompson, S. W. Irwin, and Miss Ruby Stewart, recommended Mrs. H. A. Carmichael for chairman of the First District, Miss Sykes as Secretary-treasurer, who were unanimously elected. This a re-election for Miss Sykes. Mrs. F. S. Hunt then reported that the Woman's club and the Grace Clubs of Huntsville and the Culture club of Hartselle had joined the federation.

A resolution was offered and unanimously carried thanking Mr. Harvey Hughes for the delectable luncheon and general courtesies extended to the ladies of the organization. Adjournment.

USE OF CAVALRY IN BATTLE

Roman and Greek Charioteers Were Formidable Foemen—German Tribes Disdained the Saddle.

In the old days when the Romans and Greeks fought furious battles, the charioteers drove their cars in all directions, hurled their javelins, and by the din and clatter of horses and wheels commonly threw the ranks of the enemy into disorder, and making their way among the squadrons of the enemy's cavalry, leaped down from their chariots and fought on foot. The charioteers then withdrew, little by little, from the fight, and placed their chariots in such a way that if they were hard pressed they could readily retreat to their own side. Thus in battle they afforded the mobility of cavalry with the steadiness of infantry. Daily practice enabled them to pull up their horses when going at full speed on a steep slope, or run out on the pole and stand on the yoke, and to get nimbly back into the chariot.

With the introduction of cavalry in the later iron age came larger horses, but their use for this purpose seems to have been restricted to isolated areas. There is no doubt that the west German tribes, as late as the campaign of Caesar in Gaul, used only the shaggy pony. It is said in cavalry actions they held it disgraceful and slothful to use any kind of saddle, and instead of charging in squadrons they dismounted and fought on foot. As far as England is concerned, the art of riding seems to have been introduced by the Normans. The Saxons appear to have been but indifferent horsemen.

NOT A FEMININE ATTRIBUTE

Idea That Skirts Especially Pertain to the Weaker Sex Is Completely Misleading.

If there is one thing presumably certain on this earth, in the opinion of most of us, it is that skirts are essentially feminine, and that the special feature of masculine attire is a bifurcated garment. But nothing is further from the truth. To this day the majority of the male element of the human race, so far as it wears clothes at all, is skirted. And in past times, not so very long ago, a gown down to the feet was the correct wear of respectability in civilized Europe. An anecdote told of St. Louis, king of France, illustrates this well. That monarch was the stoutest of warriors, a man whom no one knowing anything about would dream of accusing of being effeminate, but on one occasion he seriously offered to exchange costumes with a richly dressed female relative who had blamed him for wearing the unpretentious garments he usually affected, which she said were unsuited to a king. But she thought his gown was too plain for her, so declined the offer. Now, it is impossible to imagine a man like Louis even suggesting such a thing if the dress of men and women had not been practically identical, except for war and hunting. Indeed a glance at old pictures confirms this impression.

How Sardines Are Taken.

Sardines are taken in a peculiar way. A small-meshed net made of very fine blue thread is dropped into the water astern of a rowing boat. Two men pull the boat steadily along, while a third stands up and throws bait on each side of the net.

As the sardines try to pass through the meshes to reach the bait they are caught by the gills. Every now and again the men "haul in," detach the entangled fish, then cast out the net once more. Sometimes as many as five or six thousand fishes per day are thus taken, and the catch brings high prices.

But the value of these is discounted by the growing cost of bait. For this purpose salted cod's roe is used. It has to be obtained from Norway, and the price rises continually. The sardine does not mind this. Being somewhat of an epicure, it insists upon cod's roe or nothing.

Cost him what it may, the Breton fisher must bait with cod's roe or he will get no sardines.

Ants That Plant.

A species of ants living on the semi-arid plains of Texas cultivate areas of grass about their dwellings. On the cultivated space, which may have an area of ten to fifteen feet, only one kind of grass is allowed to grow, and it is said that the seeds of this grass are planted by the ants. Roads are laid out regularly, radiating from the hill across the plain, and the shoots of undesirable plants are promptly nibbled off as fast as they appear among the crops. When the harvest of the protected grass is ripe the ants collect the seeds and convey them along a radiating highway to the little rooms in their hills. Interesting and wonderful is the economy of these tiny insects. They may, when the colonies are large and numerous enough, do considerable damage to grain in fields where their mounds are reared and the clearings made.

Proves Yellow Mustard Conquers Pain and Frees the World of Much Sickness, Misery and Distress

Nineteen years ago chemist Begy discovered Mustarine. He made it with real, honest yellow mustard. To which other pain relieving ingredients were added. He said to the medical profession: "Here is something twice as effective as your old fashioned, mussy, blistering mustard plaster."

"It's full of concentrated heat and heat eases pain."

"It won't blister—it can't blister."

"And one box will do the work of 50 mustard plasters."

The doctors tried it—were astonished—almost amazed. It stopped pains, aches and soreness quicker than anything they had ever seen.

They prescribed it for sprains and strains, for lumbago and gout. They found it invaluable to quickly reduce inflammation and remove congestion.

They urged its use in Tonsillitis, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Sore Throat and Chest Colds and found it wonderful.

They grew enthusiastic—Mustarine was great.

They tried it for rheumatism to limber up stiff joints and muscles and it didn't disappoint.

If you haven't tried Begy's Mustarine get a small box at your druggists today—it costs but little, the results are marvelous—but be sure it's Begy's—the quickest pain killer on earth—always in the yellow box, 30 and 60 cents.

How Club Boys and Girls Earn Thrift Stamp Money

"Ask Dad." That was the favorite plan in days gone by when boys and girls wanted ponies, bicycles, trips or circus money. But times have changed. We've had a war and young Americans have learned something about thrift—the kind of thrift that means earning as well as saving.

Canning, poultry and pig clubs have become institutions in most every county. Government Thrift and Savings Stamp have won their way into the hearts of the youngsters. And the combination solves the juvenile problem of getting money for things the young hearts desire. They're earning the dollars now with pigs, poultry, eggs and tomatoes and they're putting their earnings to work by buying Government savings stamps which pay 4 per cent interest, compounded.

Marie Bradfish cleared something like $350 in one year on tomatoes and poultry, according to the club records, and won a prize at the state fair. Eula Trantham's profits from her garden and chickens amounted to $550. Ernest Johnson saved $300 of profits from his pigs and had finished hogs on hand valued at $700. Willard Attaway started out with one pig and later, at the state fair, showed a herd that required six pens to accommodate.

That's how the thrift boys and girls in the South are getting money for Thrift and Savings Stamps and other things they want.

Detour When Necessary.

Many people flatly refuse to take detours. The consequence is they remain right where they are. Either they do not possess the necessary patience and energy or they have an inflated notion that they can disregard life's laws. Of course you can sit down and fossilize wherever you want to so long as you don't impede the progress of others. But people who want to get on in life take the detours and make the most of them. They are no fonder of life's grades and dangerous ditches than other people, but they want to get somewhere. So they make the venture. And when they keep their eyes and ears open, and keep control of their progress there is little danger of falling in safe conduct. Meanwhile they are adapting themselves to circumstances and getting a grip on the world. They are learning how the people who always live on the detour have to struggle to get along. The knowledge will be helpful in the days that are to be.

Lost Honors Magellan Won.

An astrologer deprived Ruy Faleiro, the famous Spanish astronomer, of sharing joint honors with Ferdinand Magellan in the discovery of the Pacific ocean and the straits of Magellan. He had joint contract with Magellan from Charles V under which the two were to have one-twenty-fifth of the clear profits of the journey as well as governorship of all the lands discovered on the trip, with the rank of adelantados. This was to be theirs for life and then handed down to their heirs forever. Before the date of sailing Faleiro had his horoscope cast. The astrologer said that this told him the trip would be fatal, and Faleiro stayed behind when Magellan and his five ships sailed from Seville, Spain.

"Now, I don't think Timmy'll be staying long on this new job he's took up wid," said Mrs. Herlihy. "Tis too hard for him. Sure he gets no rest at all from Monda' mornin' till Saturda' night, and 'tis not what the man's used to."

"He has his Sundays to rest in," hazarded the caller, boldly.

"An' what o' that?" said Mrs. Herlihy. "On Sunda's he has to go to church, an' tak the children to their grandmamma's an' visit wid his cousins an' all—'tis no rest at all."

"Twas wan day out of ivery fortnight he had wid the ould job, wa'n't it?" queried the caller.

"It was," said Mrs. Herlihy, "an' 'twas a grand vacation he had. I'd save ivery bit o' the washin', an' he'd wring it out fine, an' hang it on the line for me; thin he'd saw n' split wood enough to last till the next vacation day, an' he'd bate ivery mat in the house an' shine up the faneets an' the pifers, an' wash the windys, an' there'd always be some little extra help, drivin' nails or the like, he cud give me."

"An' when he'd go to his bed at night he'd never fail to say to me, 'Well Cella, my vacation day is over, but I feel like it's made me ready to go back to wurk to-morrow,' he'd say."

Youth's Companion.

Baker's Dozen.

In most countries 13 is always spoken of as "the baker's dozen," but in Italy it is called "a cobbler's dozen." There is a tradition in that land that formerly there was a law compelling cobblers to put 12 nails around the edge of a boot heel, and that when nails were cheap a thirteen-nail was driven in the center for luck.

ROPER OUTLINES UPLIFT PROGRAM OF THE Y. M. C. A.

G. K. Roper, general railroad Y. M. C. A. Secretary returned from Sheffield this morning and at the noon hour today, addressed the Louisville and Nashville shopmen on the merits of the proposed uplift program of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Roper was introduced by C. W. Matthews, general chairman of the campaign in the shops. In the course of his remarks the speaker drew special attention to the practical needs that would be met in a practical way, if the full program of the Y. M. C. A. was carried out in the several counties of the state. The speaker made it plain that the proposed work was separate and distinct from the work of the local Y. M. C. A.

This same matter was given attention in the address of T. M. Dix at the previous noon meeting. Mr. Dix called attention to the startling lack of information among boys in rural districts especially on sex questions and told his hearers that the bulk of the money they might subscribe would be spent in welfare work for country boys and for boys and men in industrial centres.

The speaker said that he was glad that there were men who were willing to give their whole time to educational and religious work, and that he counted it a privilege to help support them in their labors.

Mr. Dix was introduced by Geo. C. Hise, acting chairman for the shops, who in a short address showed the necessity of super human efforts at his time in a Christian way, if the whole country was to pass safely from the present dangerous conditions in which we are living. The regular daily meeting of the shops soliciting committee was held Thursday afternoon and the regular two hours canvass made.

When this committee was told of the plans for a general committee meeting of all the workers so far enlisted in the present campaign, to be held at the Lyons hotel this evening, all the members agreed to fall in with the plans and to attend the meeting.

At tonight's meeting G. K. Roper is expected to amplify the plans for the county campaign and to set forth the purpose and the character of the new work promised by the Association throughout the state and the whole South.

Etiquette of Walking.
When in the street, especially in daytime, a lady is not supposed to take a gentleman's arm, unless she is infirm or elderly, though she may properly do so at night. When walking with two ladies a gentleman may walk on the outside, or the inside, or rather, the side from which he can best guard his companion or companions from obstacles or danger. It is not good form to take a lady's arm unless to assist her in some way.

Apostle Spoons.
Apostle spoons, also called "gossip spoons," were gift spoons given by the sponsors or "gossips" to a child at its christening. They were so called because each spoon had a figure of an apostle on the handle. Wealthy people gave the whole twelve Apostles; those of less means and generosity gave the four Evangelists; while poorer persons had to be contented with one, being generally the figure of the donor's or of the child's patron saint.

Strange Barometer.

The Araucarians of the southernmost province of Chile use a crab shell as a barometer. In dry, fair weather it is white, but when rain is approaching red spots appear on it, and when excessive moisture is present in the atmosphere it becomes red all over.

Cattle Eat "Rubber Cakes."

Experiments at Singapore have shown that a feeding cake for cattle and other stock can be produced from the residue of Para rubber seed after the extraction of an oil comparing favorably with linseed oil.

Victories of Every Day.

There are great victories and struggles and noble acts of heroism every day—in books and papers, and in little households, and in men's and women's hearts—any one of which might recede the sternest man to such a world, and fill him with belief and hope in it.—Dickens.

DISASTER RELIEF PLAN PERFECTED

American Red Cross to Provide Local Help.

Committees Soon To Be Appointed in Many Communities.

Do you belong to the Disaster Relief Committee in your town?

If you do, or if you are appointed, it means that you are considered brave, considerate, even-tempered and strong. To be appointed to this committee is one of the highest honors that the American Red Cross can bestow upon you; for the Disaster Relief Committee, recently explained by Harry L. Hopkins, director of Civilian Relief, Gulf Division, American Red Cross, is the great body of straight-thinking, quick-acting, dependable persons, organized in each community to meet disasters which arise, be they flood, fire, famine, explosions, shipwreck, or earthquake.

In the thirty-eight years since the American Red Cross was first organized in 1881, it has participated in 180 disaster relief expeditions—a home and abroad and has expended or directed the expenditure of twenty and a half million dollars. This covers the period up to June 1st, 1919, the end of the fiscal year.

America averages a dozen disasters a year. Latest statistics compiled by the Gulf Division, American Red Cross, show twelve disasters, and the Red Cross gave relief in every one!

In this immediate territory there were grave disasters in recent years—the Gulf States storm in 1906, the Mississippi cyclone in 1907, the Mississippi flood in 1912 and the second flood in 1914. Then there was another flood in Natchez in 1916, and more floods and the boll weevil menace in Alabama in 1917. In fact 1917 was a bad year for disasters in the South, for during the summer the tornadoes at Village Springs and Carbon Hill and New Hope, Alabama, brought about much suffering. Everybody in this vicinity remembers the Lake Charles, Louisiana, storm in 1918, in which the Gulf Division Red Cross furnished such great aid, and at which time Harry L. Hopkins, director of civilian relief, went to Lake Charles and directed the erection of the tent city. A total of $23,000 was expended in this disaster alone. And in 1919 the Corpus Christi, Texas, storm was robbed of much of its horror through the prompt action of the Red Cross.

Of these ten disasters in the Gulf Division in recent years, the Red Cross has given supplies and spent money to the extent of approximately $108,000.

RED CROSS NEEDED.

Gives More Aid Than Ever to Service Men's Families.

More than double the amount of money normally spent per month for the relief of families of service men was spent during the month of August by the Gulf Division of the American Red Cross, according to a statement made Saturday by Harry L. Hopkins, director of Civilian Relief. Up to August, 1919, a total of $114,624.76 had been spent for this work in Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi. During August $12,264.25 was spent for the same purpose in these states.

"This makes a total," said Mr. Hopkins, "of $126,889.10 expended for the relief of families of soldiers in the Gulf Division, of which sum a tenth was spent during the month of August. The reason for this is primarily the fact that most able-bodied soldiers are discharged by this time and are fully able to take care of their families themselves. Those who remain are to a large degree those who are still in the hospitals and who can do nothing for the persons dependent upon them.

"A very significant feature of this report is the striking manner in which it emphasizes the need for the continuation of the Red Cross work even in times of peace. Obviously, if we are spending more for the relief of soldiers' families in August—nearly a year after the ending of the war—than we were during the war itself, our work is far from finished.

"Incidentally, this Home Service work is only one branch of the tremendous Peace Time program which the Red Cross has mapped out for itself. The other departments are fully as important to the welfare of every community in the Gulf states. It is for this reason that the Red Cross is holding a third annual roll call this year, November 2 to 11.

"By the way, it may interest your readers to know that the Gulf Division, which includes Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi, is the only division in the entire country in which a Home Service Section has been established for every single chapter. There are 1,271 Home Service workers in the division, and they gave aid and information to 15,492 families during August of this year, which makes the total of families these workers have helped up to date, 155,160.

"Of the $12,264.25 distributed during August in extending relief to the families of soldiers and sailors in this division, $4,110.92 was distributed in Alabama, $5,684.68 in Louisiana, and $2,468.75 in Mississippi."

Lilies of the Field.

The "Lilies of the Field," so often mentioned in the Bible, are thought to be the red and purple, particularly the red anemones with black centers. These anemones grow among the thorn hedges of the East, which accounts for the saying "Lilies among thorns."

DOCTORS USE CALOTABS FOR COLDS AND FLU

Influenza and Grippe, Like Ordinary Colds, Require Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Physicians and druggists claim that the great epidemic of influenza has conclusively demonstrated that the quickest relief for a cold and the best preventive of influenza and pneumonia is to keep the liver active so that the digestive organs may be in perfect condition. For this purpose Calotabs, the new nausealess calomel tablets that are free from the sickening and weakening effects, is the most thorough and dependable, as well as the most agreeable laxative.

Calotabs have the special advantage of not making the patient sick and weak, as they do not upset the digestion and appetite. One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure, or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast.

For your protection, Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Sold by all druggists and your money back if you are not delighted with them.—Advertisement.

CHASING HUBBIES TO HELPING NEEDY, RED CROSS LABORING ON

During the five months which the Home Service Section of the Morgan County Chapter of American Red Cross has been in operation there have passed through the Section one hundred and seventy cases. These cases have called for various kinds of service, from locating lost husbands who did not want to be located, to simple questions of how to fill out the Government blanks received by some soldiers or his family regarding allotment or some of the other puzzling questions that are constantly coming up in Government work.

Thirty cases of unpaid allotment and allowance have been investigated. In many of these cases the money has been secured for the allottee within a few weeks. Compensation claims have been filed for sixteen men who were discharged for physical disability. Hospital treatment has been secured for three sick soldiers. Twenty-three men have been visited or written to in order that they might be informed concerning the vocational training which the Government desires to give the men who were wounded or contracted some disease while in service that has unfitted them to earn a livelihood by their former occupation. Search has been made for nineteen allottees that might be assisted to obtain check which were due them and which they had missed through change of address or because of incorrect address—these nineteen, twelve have been located. Four claims for discharge from the service had investigation and the result reported to the Government. Five stranded soldiers have been given tickets to various points within the state so that they might find work. Jobs for two men have been secured here in the two towns. Reports on the condition of men confined to Government hospital have been secured for their families. Tubercular soldiers have been located and offered treatment that the Government has provided for such cases. One family has been given financial aid for the last three months. Six children have been given shoes, clothing, school books, railroad fare, etc.

Two needy families have been sent to relatives willing to take care of them for the period of sickness or unemployment. In addition to these special services, information has been given daily to soldiers, sailors, and their families. Many letters have been written for those unable to write.

Regarding the work, Mrs. Vera Austelle, chairman of home service section, said:

"The work for the soldiers and sailors still goes on, and it will take several months to get matters pertaining to allotments, compensation and other Government matters settled. The Section is now engaged in civil relief, having taken that up the first of August. It is expected that this work will steadily go forward."

and that many calls for relief during the winter will be made on the Service.

"There is not any doubt that the two towns need a charitable organization of just the character of the Home Service Section. We have a wide field for work among our own poor and needy, not alone in a financial way, but in creating conditions that will make for spiritual growth and development and that will insure that every child has the opportunity to make the most of his heritage in this good land of ours, unhampered by unhygienic and immoral influences."

"The drive for members for the Red Cross will be made the first week of November, ending on November 11th—Armistice Day. The County has been assessed $1674 and is expected to enroll 1850 members—a small quota for such a large and prosperous County as Morgan. Part of these funds will be used to carry on the work of the poor in the County and to help to prepare the way for a splendid and efficient organization for welfare work."

BOYS FIND $5,500 IN DIRT PILE; TEAR UP $100 BILLS

(International News Service.)
PITTSBURG, Oct. 23.—Bits of $50 and $100 bills flying with the wind on one of Kilkinsburg's streets caused a startled policeman to "look about."

After a hurried investigation he located a half dozen boys with rolls in their pockets of from $600 to $2,000. Some of the boys were too young to know what it all meant and were playfully tearing up the money.

The money—$5,500 in all—had been found by the youngsters under a lumber pile in the yard of a Wilkinsburg dealer.

There was a recent robbery of one of the Wilkinsburg banks and the money is believed to have been hidden in the rubbers in the lumber yard.

"HARDBOILED" OFFICER

(International News Service.)

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 24.—A former army officer who had been placed in the "hard boiled" class by his men received a telegram telling him to meet a certain train. When the train came in a discharged Doughboy hopped off. "I've been waiting a year for this chance," he exclaimed, as he proceeded to beat up the officer.

After inflicting his punishment the soldier caught the train as it pulled out.

THE DECALOGUE OF LABOR

1. Thou shalt not shrink production. By it all are fed. It is the mother of every material blessing.
2. Thou shalt not break contracts. Neither plenty nor brotherhood is possible when men are liars.
3. Thou shalt not raise thy hand against the better machine or method. Invention lifts the curse pronounced against Adam.
4. Thou shalt not slack on the job. The unused talent rusts and the sluggard sins against his soul as against the leisure and happiness of his fellows.
5. Thou shalt not put three men to the work of two. The third is a burden carried by the two.
6. Thou shalt not deny freedom to others. Another's right to work is as sacred as thy right to quit. He may also bargain.
7. Thou shalt not deem an employer an enemy. He is thy partner and earns his wage.
8. Thou shalt not oppress the consumer. Strip him and he lacks wherewith to buy the work of thy hands.
9. Thou shalt obey the law, the mandate of the majority. If it suits thee not persuade, but beware of the barbarism which distills the poison that might creates right.

I WISH EVERYBODY COULD KNOW

Suffered From Acute Indigestion, Gastritis, Constipation, Headaches and Other Troubles, Which Dreco, the Herbal Remedy, Overcame.

"This is the first remedy I have ever found that did me any good," states Mr. O. R. Hooker of Route 2, Gadsden, Ala. "I admit that when I began taking Dreco I had no confidence in it, for I had already tried so many of them, but the improvement is so marked that I am convinced of its merits. I used to suffer from gas on my stomach and bowels after eating; I would be all bloated up and very uncomfortable. My bowels were hard, actually constipated. I was bilious and had to take medicine constantly. My appetite was poor, and I became extremely nervous, so that I could not sleep much. "I have taken a treatment of Dreco, and now my stomach digests the food without those distressing after-effects I used to have, such as pain, uneasy feeling, belching and gas. My appetite has increased; I sleep sound; my bowels act regularly every day, and I have no more headache nor dizzy spells. You have my permission to publish this letter. "It has become a custom with many persons to take a good system tonic each year, something that cleans out the system, purifies the blood, gets the liver and kidneys in good shape, and tones up the stomach. Such a tonic is Dreco. Being made of roots, herbs, barks, berries and leaves from medicinal plants, it is truly Nature's own remedy, and that it really accomplishes these results is proven by the many endorsements given it by well-known and reliable people. Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by Albany Drug Co., Albany, Hilda Drug Co., Decatur. —Advertisement.

PLAN RURAL WELFARE

Red Cross Specialist Studying Southern Rural Districts.

"What will you do if we have another epidemic of flu?" This is the question that is being answered daily by Dr. E. L. Morgan, national director of the Red Cross Bureau of Organization, in the Gulf Division. From community to community, Dr. Morgan is visiting and studying in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. His latest address was before the Home Service Institute at Vicksburg, Mississippi, where he said that the question of preparation for epidemics is of paramount importance.

"If a district is found unhealthy and if typhoid is raging because of impure water," said Dr. Morgan, "treat the case as though you were acting for a family. Consult the public health officials, and the sanitary and legal forces, and get the community back of you to carry out the necessary reforms."

Dr. Morgan's tour is principally in the interests of the rural community—the community which is getting such a large share of attention in the Red Cross Peace Time Program. The Home Service sections of the Red Cross are to have a great part in this work and it is expected that public health will be improved to a great extent through their co-operation with Red Cross public health nurses.

"Look around your own town," Dr. Morgan told the Red Cross workers, "and see if it is orderly and clean, or if it is dirty and unsanitary. If the death rate is too high, there is a reason—and you must find out that reason. All of the people are stockholders in the community, and their stock improves or depreciates according to the condition in which their property is kept, and the property improves in proportion with the person who owns it."

The Red Cross has a two-fold job in this respect," Dr. Morgan continued. "We must carry on the work the individual chapter has decided upon, such as employing public health nurses, getting better schools, and supplying the needs of the community; secondly, we must carry on a campaign of education to give the people the knowledge that will make them desire the greater things of life."

"We are going to do for the country what is being done for the city. Living conditions in the two places must be made equally pleasant and healthful."

RED CROSS SERVING DISCHARGED SOLDIERS IN MANY WAYS.

"Say, Sam, did you ever get that Liberty bond you paid for?"

"No."

"Neither did I. I wonder when Uncle Sam is coming through with it."

This conversation, or one like it, is taking place these days between hundreds of "pals" in the service, or just discharged from it. Various difficulties have been experienced by soldiers in getting the bonds for which they have paid.

To overcome this condition the American Red Cross has come to the rescue. All any soldier who wants his bond needs to do henceforth is to inform a representative of the Red Cross. Practically any contingency causing delay has been guarded against. The soldier must give the representative all the information he can and leave the rest to the association, which will take up the matter and see that prompt delivery is made through registered mail.

The method is this, in brief: The soldier assigns the delivery of his bonds to the Red Cross representative, who obtains it from the bond section of the zone finance office and delivers it to the owner.

This is one of the many services of this great organization which is soon to conduct a third roll call to gain money and members to keep up its work permanently.

CRIPPLED SCHOOL CHILD SAVED BY RED CROSS SECRETARY.

A strange lady stopped a group of children who were on their way to the country school. She had noticed them dragging a young boy along the rough road.

"You mustn't do that," she told them. "Why don't you let your little playmate walk?"

One of the boy's bright-eyed little captors spoke up:

"Aw, lady, can't ya see Willie's a cripple? He can't walk."

The lady did see, now. And she accompanied the children home. It was a home of poverty, of wretched squalor. The mother of the crippled boy informed the visitor she had no money to buy crutches for her son, who was a victim of infantile paralysis.

That was three weeks ago. Today the boy is walking again, feebly and uncertainly, but successfully. The strange lady was a Red Cross Home Service secretary, and she sent the boy from the town in Mississippi, where she found him, to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Memphis, where a successful operation was performed.

The Peace Program of the Red Cross provides for the continuation of such activities as this. The local Red Cross organization will conduct a drive November 2 to 11, for the purpose of extending Red Cross service to the community.

Hindu Children Mechanics. Hindu children are remarkable for their precocity. Many of them are skilful workmen at an age when the children of other nations are learning the alphabet. A boy of seven may be a skilful wood carver, while some of the handiwork rugs are woven by children not yet in their teens.

WANDA HAWLEY IN
"THE GYPSY TRAIL"
AT DELITE TODAY

Charming Leading Woman for Bryant Washburn.

The exquisite blonde beauty of petite Wanda Hawley, who has the leading feminine role opposite Bryant Washburn, in his first Paramount starring picture, "The Gypsy Trail," which will be shown at the Delite Theatre Friday, is admirably cast as Frances Raymond. The role calls for a girl who is pretty and conventional, but who thinks she is romantic.

Her work with Cecil B. DeMille in "We Can't Have Everything" and with William S. Hart in "The Border Wireless," has stamped Wanda Hawley as one of the most charming of the younger screen actresses. Her beauty is of the type an artist would say was "perfect." Her eyes are a blue that is deep as the sea; her hair is a golden blonde; she has a face of perfect contour and dimples that come and go with every change of expression.

But most of all she has talent and imagination—and she employs both in her screen work. The picture was admirably produced.

"STEP LIVELY"

Masonic Theatre Tuesday, October 28
"Step Lively" the La Salle Company's offering with all that their trademark implies, of excellence in musical comedy is an early underlined attraction at the Masonic theatre Tuesday, October 28th. It has brilliant, joyous, piquant music, songs that charm and that are easily sung and whistled, a plot that is consistent and filled to the brim with comedy, principals that can sing, dance and act, a chorus of pretty girls who sing, dance and wear those "ahead of the model" gowns that create a sensation in every city visited. They are the most startling ever seen on the stage; freakish they may be but the modistes may accurately forecast the styles in women's gowns for the next year.

Their design and combination will make the ladies sit up and take notice. "Step Lively" will keep you laughing from start to finish.

NAZIMOVA IN "THE BRAT"
ADDS TO SCREEN FAME

Brilliant Star Triumphs In Picturization of Maude Fulton's Stage Success at the Masonic Theatre.

The incomparable Nazimova in her latest screen production, "The Brat," delighted and thrilled a crowded house at the Masonic theatre yesterday. The picture, which is an adaptation by Nazimova and Charles Bryant, who is also her leading man, of the successful stage comedy drama written and starred in by Maude Fulton, was cleverly put into scenario form by June Mathis. It proved a genuine novelty and presented the versatile and amazing Nazimova in a role of the greatest range and intense human appeal.

Oddly enough, "The Brat" is the first of Nazimova's stage or screen impersonations that presents her as an American girl. Her great fame hitherto has been derived from portrayals of Latin and other European types; but as an American girl—and a pitiful waif of humanity at that—she discloses anew her remarkable ability as a female virtuoso of the emotions.

OLIVE THOMAS AT THE MASONIC SATURDAY

Olive Thomas, one of the most beautiful stars of the screen, will be seen in her latest feature, "The Follies Girl," at the Masonic theatre on Saturday of this week. This picture is from the story by W. Carey Wonderly. It tells of the secret marriage of a demure star of the footlights to the nephew of a rich, old man who is believed to be on his death-bed. The old man is surrounded by relatives who are anxious to inherit his wealth. Miss Thomas is installed as the old man's nurse, and then complications develop rapidly. For this former stage beauty makes a hit with the invalid, renews his interest in life and he quickly regains his health.

The relatives are furious, for they fear the uncle's fondness for his nurse may separate them from his gold forever. Then comes the big surprise of the picture, and love triumphs in favor of the little actress with a big heart.

Miss Thomas plays her part brilliantly, and it is an ideal vehicle for the fair Olive, who first stepped into renown as a star of the first magnitude with the Ziegfeld Midnight Frolic in New York.

Her supporting cast is said to be excellent, and includes Wallace MacDonald, William V. Long, Lee Phelps, Ray Griffith and other well-known players. The director, Jack Dillon, has produced the picture in excellent taste, and admirers of Miss Thomas will find this production well worthy of a visit to the Masonic theatre Saturday.

No mere highbrow professor.
Do parents for a son now plan;
With the present pay, if they have their way,
He'll be a streetcar motorman.

He will have to be a wage earner of one kind or another, if he is to dress as a gentleman should wish to dress, and eat as a man feels an urge to eat.

Representative Siegel of New York tells the Federal Trade Commission that collars will be 35 cents each next month and afterward, perhaps ever afterward, unless they are raised to half a dollar. Representative Blanton of Texas tells his colleagues that the salary of the Governor of Texas is $333.33 a month, while that of a freight engineer is $892.35.

The Governor of Texas has the misfortune to draw a salary. The engineers work for wages. Mr. Webster—the late Mr. Webster—says "wages" mean "salary." The times have changed. If the Governor of Texas were a wage-earner he would demand "living wages." As he isn't he must govern a state larger than the late German empire and live in an echoing mansion as best he can upon less than many a wage-earner is paid. A salary is something accepted by a bread-winner if he wishes to retain the position. "Wages" means pay demanded by the holder of a "job" at satisfactory wages. There's a deal of difference.

The blue shirt was once upon a time the familiar garb of the wage-earner; the white shirt the conventional garment of the officeholder and the salaried man in industrial life. The time is coming, the presently will have arrived when the salaried classes, including the governors, will have to wear blue shirts, or none. Any white shirt sold with the equivalent of the shoe guarantee, "warranted not to rip, tear or run down at the heel," is nowadays, a luxury about which a governor, a college professor, a professional man, a clerk, must think twice before buying. Both times he thinks that when the present supply comes to an end he will be embarrassed, financially and otherwise.

Inasmuch as the "billed" shirt is getting out of the reach of the classes which once affected its distinctive elegance, it may be well for those classes to consider the possibility that by adopting a style of dress which has historically won sympathy, they may recent collars and the white shirts are habitate themselves. When the 85-cent collars and the white shirts are worn by none but wage-earners and profiteering proprietors, when the bank clerks, the educators, the salesmen in shops, the office-holding class, salaried folk generally, shall have been forced into the blue shirt because it is more economical, not only in cost price, but also in maintenance, perhaps a wave of sympathy for the wearers of the blue shirt will sweep through the land. Possibly it will be said, upon the political stump and elsewhere, that the honest college professor in his blue shirt and overalls, with his dinner pail upon his arm; the honest physician in whole-some blue; the surgeon with his blue shirt sleeves rolled up; the governor with the bright blue patches upon the faded blue elbows of his proclaiming garment, ought to have "living salaries" and ought to be encouraged to aspire to the possession of at least enough billed shirts for Sunday wear.

Home cannot be given us. We must give a home a place to enter. Deep. This is not a home. A home is a place of love and rest and peace. Love and rest and peace must be earned, must be earned. Nobody can send them to you as so many packages. They are matters of reciprocity. If you have none to give, there will be but little for you to receive.—West in Methodist.

INDIGESTION!

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. The pepsin, the most effective of all the digestants, helps to digest the food and the laxative properties act on the bowels. It aids the digestive organs to work naturally so that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with.

You can buy a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter sufficient to enable an entire family to enjoy food for months.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 511 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

ZIRON Iron Tonic Makes Her "Old Man"
Feel Young Again, Says Daughter.

To help repair the results of illness, old age, work and worry in your daily life; to help give strength to your run-down system and to help renew faded forces and tone up the nerves—you will find a valuable remedy in Ziron.

Read what Ziron did for an old man, who had to stay in bed most of the time. His daughter, Myrtle Mills, of Putaski, Tenn., says: "Ziron has helped my father wonderfully. He could not do anything before taking it. He was in bed most of the time, complaining with broken-down nerves and backache. He has taken three bottles and says he is as strong as when he was 17 years old."

If your blood needs iron, try Ziron Iron Tonic. What it has done for others, it may do for you.

Ziron is mild, harmless; does not discolor the teeth, and may be taken safely by young and old, men, women and children.

Get Ziron at your druggist's, under a money-back guarantee.
